International Maritime Management
Master's course
of Jade University of Applied Sciences
Wilhelmshaven/Oldenburg/Elsfleth

Approved by the University Administration of Jade University of Applied Sciences Wilhelmshaven/Oldenburg/Elsfleth
during its 265th meeting on 4 July 2017

Published in the official gazette
90/2017 dated 8 August 2017

On the basis of Section 44, Para. 1 of the Lower Saxony University Act (NHG) dated 26 February 2007, most recently amended by Art. 12 of the Act dated 20 December 2016 (Nds. GVBl. p. 308), and Section 1 of the general part of the Master's examination regulations of Jade University of Applied Sciences Wilhelmshaven/Oldenburg/Elsfleth (Part A) in the applicable version, the council of the Department of Maritime Management and Logistics resolved the following examination regulations on 21 June 2016:

1

Course type and profile

The International Maritime Management Master's course is a further educational course with a focus on practical application.

2

University degree

After successful completion of the Master's examination, the university awards the title of "Master of Science" (M.Sc.).

3

Course duration and structure

- (1) The regular course duration is five semesters with a total of 90 credit points (CP) according to the European Credit Transfer System (ECTS).
- (2) A credit point corresponds to 25 hours' work by the student.
- (3) The course is modular and consists of seven mandatory modules (48 CP), two elective modules (12 CP) and a Master's thesis (30 CP). The recommended sequence of modules is detailed in Appendix 1.
- (4) Currently, four modules are available as elective modules, and students must select two of them. If required, the department council can add further modules. The current range of mandatory modules available is announced at the beginning of each semester.

4

Modules, type and extent of examinations

- (1) Module designations including the type and extent of examinations, recommended allocation to the various semesters as well as the number of credit points are detailed in Appendix 1.
- (2) Grades are awarded for performance in examinations and evaluated according to Section 10, Part A, Master's examination regulations. Performance is evaluated as "passed" or "failed".

5

Examinations

- (1) Students are admitted to examinations
  - a) if they have attended the relevant course module and
  - b) paid the fee according to Section 2 of the fee regulations for the course.
- (2) Students can withdraw from registration for an examination at the first attempt by not attending an examination which requires their presence. The failure to submit examination work or delayed submission of examination work which must be submitted by a specific deadline also constitutes a withdrawal at the first attempt.

Master's thesis

- (1) Students are admitted to the Master's thesis if they have passed all modules with a total of 60 credit points. Upon application by the Examination Board, students can be admitted to the Master's thesis who have not passed the examination for one module if the examination can be retrospectively taken within one semester without negatively affecting the Master's thesis.
- (2) The period allowed for the Master's thesis is five months. In individual cases and following an application stating reasons, the Examination Board can extend this period to a total of six months.
- (3) The Master's thesis must be submitted in electronic form to the office selected by the Examination Board.
- (4) The Master's thesis must be in the English language. On application by the candidate and with the agreement of the examiners, the thesis may be in another language. The Master's thesis presentation must be in the English language.

Master certificate

- (1) According to Part A of the Master's examination regulations, the certificate and Diploma Supplement are issued in the English language.
- (2) On request, graduates can receive a translation of their certificate as well as a Diploma Supplement in the German language.

8

Effectiveness

These examination regulations become effective on the day after their publication in the official gazette of Jade University of Applied Sciences. They apply for the first time for students starting the course in Winter Semester 2017/18.
